

1st Claygate Scout Group

(Founded 1909)

Membership Information

Not only does this form give us important information it also enables parents to take part in activities (If only for providing transport to and from camp) having been 'cleared' by the Scout Association, a necessary process before all adults have contact with young people. Please return this form to your child's section Leader at the next meeting or e-mail it and copy to gostling.family@ntlworld.com An electronic version of this form is available from Hugh Gostling or the Group Web Site – www.claygatescouts.org.
